

Intercessions for Mothering Sunday – 14th March 2021 (Lent)

Everlasting God, as your son Jesus Christ showed his love on the cross, in his compassion for his mother and his sacrifice for us all, may we know what it is to love and be loved, in words and in actions.

Heavenly Father we pray today for our Mother Church and our Chaplaincy here in greater Manchester. We give you thanks for our Church family and pray that all may find in her their true home; that the lonely, the marginalized, the rejected may be welcomed and loved in the name of Jesus. In our deanery we pray for Sharon Jones, John Rosedale and Richard Lambert and give thanks for their ministry.

Lord in your mercy, Hear our Prayer

Creator God, as we see the brokenness of our world we pray for healing among the nations; for food where there is hunger; for freedom where there is oppression; for joy where there is pain; that your love may bring peace to all your children. We especially pray for all mothers who have to raise their children in places where there is war, famine, terrorism and great uncertainty. For mothers who have had to flee conflict to a different country or are far from their homes and their relatives. For mothers who have been unable to meet with their children because of Coronavirus and for those who have had to cope with home learning with their children whilst still doing all of their everyday work.

Lord in your mercy, Hear our Prayer

Gracious God, you have given us the right to be called children of God. Help us to show your love in our homes that they may be places of love, security and truth. Your Son, was born into the family of Mary and Joseph; bless all parents and all who care for children; strengthen those families living under stress and may your love be known where no human love is found.

Lord in your mercy, Hear our Prayer

Heavenly Father, we thank you for our families, friends and neighbours and for the people with whom we work or share our daily lives. In our own community we pray for those living on Smith St. especially the lonely, those isolated because of Coronavirus and those who find it difficult to make friends or be accepted.

We pray for Codie Fisher whose baptism anniversary falls this week. Keep her safe and surround her with your love.

Lord in your Mercy, Hear our Prayer

Father God, we remember that as we celebrate Mothering Sunday today there are those who do not share our happiness, those who are sick, those who are sad, those who lonely, those who separated from their families and those who live in families where there is little joy. We raise before you now, those who need healing in their lives and give you thanks where healing has taken place: Jean Smith, Christine Moorfield, Enid Firth, Evelyn, Mary Lawton, Gordon Lawton, Alma, Grace Stansfield, Bernard, Mark, Betty Heap, Andrew Fawcett, Lucy Rigby, Charlie Standing, Lucy, George, Dave Owen, David Owen, Suzie Belle, Duke of Edinburgh, Leslie Hodinott.

Lord in your mercy, Hear our Prayer

Merciful God, you commanded us to honour our parents. Have mercy on the souls of our mothers and Fathers who have departed this life and hear us as we now remember too, the recently departed: Peter Dylan Cummaford. We remember also, Emily Robinson whose anniversary falls in the coming week.

We pray especially for those who have died at the hands of others remembering Sarah Everard. Comfort her family as they try to come to terms with her death.

Lord in your mercy, Hear our Prayer

Gracious God, as we go out into the coming week may we reflect your love for us love in our families, our church and our community; so that the world can see that we are followers of your son Jesus Christ and draw others into his loving care.

Merciful Father: accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen
