Collect

Let your merciful ears. O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants: and that they may obtain their petitions, make them to ask such things as shall please you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Covid restrictions information

Our 8am service will continue to provide protection for those who will feel safer in a covid secure environment. Masks worn by all, no singing, social distancing, hand sanitising, and the Eucharist in one kind only.

The 9:30am service will have the relaxation of restrictions that were brought in last Monday by the government. However, there will still be one side of the church for those who wish to socially distance and wear masks.

The Thursday night service will remain online until September.

Short thought

“I am the bread of life”

Bread, in one form or another can be eaten throughout the world. South Asia has chapattis, roti and naans; the Middle East has pittas, Israel especially, has matso; South America has tortillas and the list goes on. Jesus, the bread of life, is there for everyone, no matter where they come from.

It's not where we come from but where we are going that's important, and if we feed on the bread of life, our destination is the Kingdom of God.

Please send any notices for the pew sheet each week by Thursday via email - Mthr Amy-Elizabeth is on leave for two weeks so please email Rev Lyn.
