Short thought

“Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me..” As adults we are used to juggling the tasks of the day, organising other people, perhaps looking after relatives, or children, and our responsibilities mount up. We lose the joy of being a child, and perhaps we cannot look back at our childhood with any joy either. But Jesus is telling us today that we need to come towards him with our child like selves, our created wholeness, the unique individual that we are created to be. We can approach Jesus just as we are, He knows us deeply through any barriers or defences we put up, He knows and loves us beyond all worldly expectations of ourselves and others. Jesus calls us to come to Him as uniquely us, with our true selves on display - tottering up to him like a toddler unsteady on its feet, with His hand to guide and bless us with every step.

If anyone would like to join in with the DAY BY DAY scheme please speak to our treasurer Edna.

Please send any notices for the pew sheet each week by Wednesday evening via email to Mthr Amy-Elizabeth.
