Short thought

“Let them deny themselves, take up their cross and follow me..”
Jesus is quick to rebuke Peter when Peter puts the fear of the pain of human emotion in front of the Father’s will for Jesus. Peter does not want to hear the gruesome prophecy of Jesus’ death, he does not want to feel what will come his way - so he tries to talk Jesus out of it. A foolish move by poor Peter! However, here we learn that denying ourselves is not just about physical things like fasting, but the ability to not want to protect the “self.” We will do anything to stop ourselves feeling embarrassed, hurt, ridiculed, ashamed etc but Jesus does away with the power these feelings have over us. His love is boundless and breaks through the barriers we put up to protect our “self.” When we put ourselves aside, we pick up the cross and follow the way of Jesus, our eyes fixed on Him and His on us.
