Collect

Almighty God, you have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless till they find their rest in you: pour your love into our hearts and draw us to yourself, and so bring us at last to your heavenly city where we shall see you face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Short thought

There is a lot of complaining in the readings today. In the Old testament the people are fed up with a lack of food and reminiscing over what they had in Egypt – even though they were in slavery! The disciples are complaining that they saw the power of Jesus being invoked by people who weren't them – even the disciples thought only they were able to call upon Jesus' help! God makes it clear in both readings that His generous love cuts through our human expectations and limitations on what we believe He can do, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit working together with the crying out of His people, us. Crying out to the Lord is what we must do because he longs to step into our hearts and guide us through whatever is going on. Be confident in your prayers, cry out to Him in total honesty, He is listening, He is waiting and longing for us.

If anyone would like to join in with the DAY BY DAY scheme please speak to our treasurer Edna.
