Short thought

“Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.” Such needed words of Jesus are heard in the Gospel reading today. Trouble and fears of the world we live in are all around us. Not just the enormity of the things we see in the news but the things that are closest to us. Perhaps it takes all our strength just to leave the house, or even get dressed for the day. Jesus speaks His love into all our fears drawing us close when we feel isolated and upset. Jesus promises to be with us through everything and there is nothing too small for Him to care about. His peace and love is everlasting and His time eternal, ever patient and ever present. This week draw your hearts close to Him in everything you do. Amen.
