Collect

Lord you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth: send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whoever lives is counted dead before you. Rant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Short thought

I was blessed to visit the most wonderful garden a few weeks back. It was a back garden paradise. Birds everywhere and flowers as far as the eye could see. The garden was on a steep incline and walking up to the back was a journey of colour and beauty. We hear in the Gospel today about putting the hand to the plough, and the perils of looking backwards. If you look backwards when you mow the lawn the lines in the grass are certainly not going to be what you expected, and same with the plough the turned soil will not be in straight lines where growth can be favourable. Like this beautiful garden I was in, here I saw commitment and trust that what was something ordinary could be grown into something extraordinary. Put all your trust in the Lord today, do not look back, walk forward with Him no matter what, follow Him, hear His call, the one who calls is faithful.
