Short thought

“you are worried and distracted by many things.” Jesus says these words to Martha who is trying to get all the tasks that she needed to do to keep the house ticking over and probably to make sure that there was enough food for all those that would be popping in her house to listen to Jesus. However, her Sister Mary had already seen that all the food and nourishment that was needed was sat fully present in her lounge and so she sits at Jesus’ feet. Martha is distracted by all the human needs and expectations around her and even accuses Jesus of not caring! Jesus reminds her that what He has come to say, the good news that He brings, that He is the way to eternal life is more important than any chore or expectation demanded of this world. Jesus calls us to clear our hearts of any distractions and worries that stop us from hearing His words of salvation and hope and love, we are only in need of one thing and that is Him.

Please send any notices for the pew sheet each week by Wednesday evening via email to Mthr Amy-Elizabeth.
