Collect

Merciful God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding: pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Short thought

“Ask, search, knock” This week I have been away working in Oxford and staying with a group of Priests in Keble college. The chapel there is stunning, made of stone and has amazing mosaics. But also in the side chapel is one of the original paintings of the ‘light of the world.’ This painting shows Jesus stood at a door with a lamp in His hand waiting for whoever knocks at the door so He can open it. This is a wonderful image as we hear the gospel reading today as Jesus calls us to ask, search, and knock for Him, for the door to Him will be opened. This week allow the door of your hearts to be opened to His word and call, let Him in and be changed by His overflowing love and peace. Amen.
