

St John the Baptist Hey

Sunday 14th August
9th Sunday after Trinity

8am Holy Communion
9:30am Holy Communion

Readings and hymns

Processional	57	Awake my soul (verses 1,2,3,4,8)
Old Testament		Jeremiah 23: 23-29
New Testament		Hebrews 11:29-12:2
Gradual	466	Lord of all being
Gospel Reading		Luke 12:49-56
Intercessions		Through our lives
Offertory	840	Ye Holy angels bright
Communion	398	Jesus remember me
	124	Come holy ghost our souls inspire
Final	353	In Christ there is no east or west

Stjohnhey@gmail.com
0161 626 3630

Collect

Almighty God, who sent your Holy Spirit to be the light and light of your church: open our hearts to the riches of your grace, that we may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit in love and joy and peace: through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Day by day scheme

The day by day scheme is still running. If you would like to remember a loved one, or any type of celebration or anniversary, through donation, please speak to the clergy or any member of the PCC. (See next page.)

Come and praise

There will be NO services throughout August. There are still opportunities to attend Church on the Wednesday Eucharist at 10am, and the Sunday Eucharist at 8am and 9:30am. See you in September!

This week

Wednesday 17th August
10am Holy Communion

Stjohnhey@gmail.com
0161 626 3630

Our prayers are asked for:

World

For

Diocese

Bishops David, Mark, and Mark, Archdeacon David Sharples, Area Dean Rev Daniel Ramble, Lay Chair Liz Dent, Clergy, readers, and ALMs in our mission community.

Street prayers

Smith Street

Members of our church community

Jean Smith, Enid Firth, Mary Lawton, Mark Crossley, Gordon Jackson, Barbara Brogan, Michael Brogan, Grace Stansfield, and Rev Canon Marcia Wall.

Years mind

Hilda Spencer

Day by day

18th August – Rob's birthday, Husband, Dad, Granddad

Short thought

When Dave and I lived in London, the London Marathon passed at the end of our street. The majority of the runners would say that what kept them going was the encouragement of other runners and the cheering of the people who lined the streets – and believe me, they were many.

On the day of the marathon, as we walked back from church, we would find sweatshirts and all manner of outer clothing, strewn along the streets. This was where the runners had discarded them rather than have the weight reduce their speed. There was room for no encumbrance.

In running the Christian race, we need the encouragement of our fellow runners. We also need the great cloud of witnesses, those who have gone before us; let us follow their examples, casting off that which would encumber us. Let us pray that the Lord will show us what weighs us down, and give us the courage to cast it aside.